

Delmori

Description

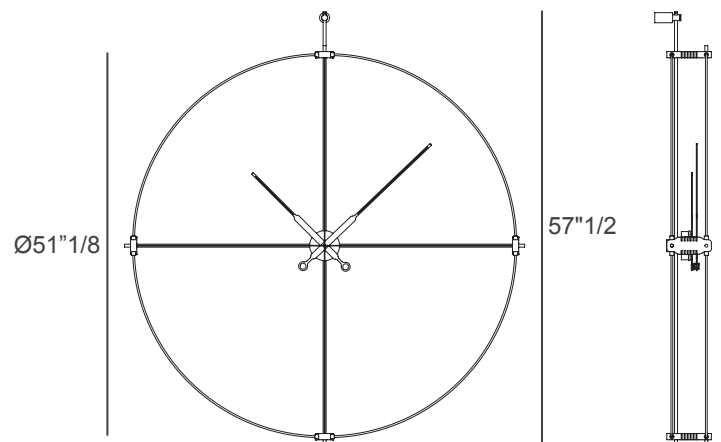

Delmori Premium represents the most spectacular and elevated expression of the brand's design philosophy—a reinterpretation of the classic Delmori brought to a new level of luxury, detail, and visual impact. Distinguished by its brass-finished double fiberglass ring, the model introduces a refined glamour while maintaining the lightness and purity that define the collection. This premium edition also incorporates an exclusive version featuring black or oak fibers, adding depth and richness to its sculptural silhouette.

Belonging to the new Premium Collection, where Nomon revisits its most iconic designs to enhance them with superior materials and heightened sophistication, Delmori Premium stands as a testament to craftsmanship, aesthetics, and timeless design excellence. An ideal centerpiece for interiors that seek a luxurious minimalist identity.
