

Bay

Design: Niccolò Devetag

Description

The Bay rectangular dining table redefines modern luxury furniture design through its interplay of materials, proportions, and craftsmanship.

It is supported by two bold monolithic bases in Canaletta walnut, with removable outer sections, a greystained ash core, adjustable end-feet and removable moulded balancing weights in concrete, combining a sense of strength and harmony. The wide tabletop—available in a choice of wood, marble, glass, or Rock—offers unmatched versatility for both residential and contract environments.

A true designer furniture masterpiece, Bay combines functional beauty with Porada's distinctive timeless aesthetic.

Made in Italy.
