

Moty

Design: Umberto Asnago

Description

Moty perfectly balances aesthetics and functionality, embodying the essence of Italian craftsmanship. This refined desk or vanity features legs, side drawers, and a flap storage compartment, all upholstered in fine leather for a soft, tactile appeal.

Inside, a round mirror and leather-lined storage space enhance practicality while maintaining the elegance of the solid canaletta walnut structure. Compact yet sophisticated, Moty is designed to elevate both bedroom and home office environments, offering a versatile and elegant solution for contemporary interiors.

Made in Italy.
