

Leonardo

Design: Alessandro La Spada

Description

Leonardo is conceived as an extension of the eponymous product family designed by Alessandro La Spada. Its distinctive feature lies in the body of the furniture, crafted from layered MDF molded and 3D-worked with vertical fluting. A signature element of the Leonardo collection is also the curvature of the metal component, which visually subtracts part of the central structure. The oval top, made of marble completes the design with a sculptural presence, enhancing its refined aesthetic.
