

Settanta

Design: Imago

Description

Settanta is a versatile and sophisticated piece that effortlessly transforms into either a writing desk or an elegant vanity unit—adapting to your lifestyle with timeless style. Its soft, rounded lines and meticulously balanced proportions reveal a refined design language enriched by exquisite craftsmanship and a thoughtful selection of premium materials, including wood, stoneware, and eco-leather.

Crafted with a solid wooden frame and a beautifully finished top, Settanta offers both practicality and aesthetic grace. The spacious drawer—designed with a discreet bottom grip—slides smoothly, providing convenient storage for daily essentials while maintaining the desk's clean and minimalist silhouette. Every detail highlights Dallagnese's long-standing artisanal expertise, from the precision joinery to the harmonious interplay of textures.

The top can be chosen in various stoneware finishes to add a contemporary touch, and the eco-leather shell enhances its luxurious character. This upholstered shell gently wraps the structure, elevating the piece into a statement object that looks impeccably refined even when positioned in the center of a room. Settanta enriches any modern interior, whether used in the bedroom, dressing area, or home office, delivering a perfect blend of functionality, elegance, and timeless Italian craftsmanship.
