

Grand Life Design: Christophe Pillet

Description

This outdoor lounge is built with a wood structure that features a hidden metal core for long-lasting stability and strength. The sides are hand-finished with an intricate weave of synthetic rope, and the design includes a handy built-in low table surface. It is outfitted with a soft, full-length mattress in weather-resistant fabric that is fully removable for cleaning. This piece is engineered for high-performance durability in luxury residential or exclusive contract environments and is proudly Made in Italy.
