

Grand Life Design: Christophe Pillet

Description

This expansive outdoor sofa is built with a wood frame that features a hidden metal core to ensure lasting stability and strength. The backrest is hand-finished with an intricate weave of synthetic rope, while the seat and back are outfitted with oversized, soft-touch cushions made from high-performance outdoor fabric. This combination of materials is engineered to resist UV rays, abrasion, and moisture, making it a centerpiece for prestigious residential gardens or exclusive contract settings. Proudly Made in Italy.
