

Hut

Design: Patrick Norguet

Description

This archiproducts award-winner daybed is constructed with a durable wood structure and a circular metal base that defines the spacious seating area. It features a large, soft mattress and can be customized with a set of decorative cushions and an elegant, air-filtering curtain for added privacy. The piece is self-supporting and movable, making it adaptable to various outdoor environments without the need for ground fixing. Engineered for long-lasting stability and weather resistance, it is proudly Made in Italy.
