

Amoris

Design: Artefatto

Description

The Amoris table appears as matter suspended in a delicate state of equilibrium, where sculptural forms interact in perfect harmony to create a sense of lightness and balance. Its design is defined by the interplay of geometric volumes that seem to support one another in an almost weightless composition, expressing the refined language of contemporary designer furniture.

Crafted from precious materials such as marble and quartzite, the table showcases a sophisticated dialogue between natural textures and architectural structure. The refined joints and seamless transitions between elements highlight the meticulous craftsmanship and material excellence that distinguish luxury Italian furniture, transforming the piece into a true work of art.

Striking yet elegant, the Amoris table is designed to elevate refined interiors with its sculptural presence and timeless appeal. Perfect for sophisticated dining areas and curated luxury home furniture settings, it embodies a harmonious balance between innovation, material richness, and contemporary design excellence.

Made in Italy.
