

Sira

Design: Back Tie Studio

Description

The Sira sideboard embodies severity and substance, presenting itself as a refined storage piece with a discreet yet distinctive personality. Its composed silhouette allows it to integrate effortlessly into prestigious environments, where elegance is expressed through balance, proportion, and understated sophistication. Designed to contain and organize with discretion, Sira reflects the essence of luxury brand furniture defined by quiet confidence.

Its harmonious composition highlights the “Black Tie” spirit of refined minimalism, where lightness and structure coexist. The slender base elevates the volume, giving the piece an airy presence while maintaining a strong architectural identity. The interplay between surfaces and materials enhances the perception of depth, creating a subtle visual rhythm that rewards the most attentive gaze.

The harmonious luxury of its finishes further emphasizes its sophisticated character, combining warm wood tones with refined metallic accents. This careful material dialogue reinforces the timeless elegance of the piece, making it ideal for curated interiors and cohesive modern luxury living room furniture arrangements. Sira offers both functionality and aesthetic restraint, delivering a refined statement rooted in contemporary Italian design sensibility.
