Description

This remarkable table is defined by its sculptural base with elegant volute shapes, showcasing the artistry and grandeur of classic designer furniture. Crafted from fine walnut and birdseye maple, the base creates a dynamic and architectural foundation that elevates the piece into a true statement of traditional craftsmanship and refined luxury.

The extendable top reveals an extraordinary central panel, richly decorated with intricate marquetry, luminous mother-of-pearl, and mirrored accents. This exquisite composition highlights the meticulous attention to detail and decorative mastery that define luxury Italian furniture, where each element is carefully designed to enhance both visual depth and elegance. The external panels, crafted in walnut and birdseye maple, frame the centerpiece with warmth and balance, completing the harmonious design.

Combining functionality with ornamental sophistication, this table seamlessly adapts to both intimate and formal settings. Ideal for refined dining spaces and classic luxury home furniture interiors, it represents a perfect balance between tradition, craftsmanship, and timeless decorative beauty. Made in Italy.
