

Pegaso

Design: Giuseppe Carpanelli

Description

This elegant writing desk combines refined proportions and practical functionality, creating a sophisticated workspace within a curated luxury furniture collection. Its clean architectural silhouette and balanced structure highlight the natural beauty of wood while offering a timeless aesthetic that complements both classic and contemporary interiors.

Crafted in fine walnut wood, the desk showcases the warmth and character of premium materials associated with luxury Italian furniture. The design features a spacious main drawer with a smooth push-and-pull opening mechanism, allowing for discreet and effortless storage. Additional smaller drawers positioned along the upper section provide convenient organization for everyday essentials, while refined metal handles add a subtle touch of modern sophistication.

Supported by solid wood legs that emphasize stability and craftsmanship, the desk reflects the artisanal quality typical of high-end Italian design. Both functional and elegant, it integrates beautifully into refined workspaces, private studies, or sophisticated luxury home furniture environments, offering a harmonious balance between practicality, comfort, and timeless design.

Made in Italy.
