Design: Giuseppe Carpanelli

Description

This sculptural table reflects the refined elegance and craftsmanship expected from a true luxury brand. Its striking cross-shaped base creates a bold architectural presence, transforming the piece into a sophisticated focal point within contemporary interiors. Fully upholstered in premium leather, the base highlights the meticulous attention to detail and artisanal expertise that define high-end Italian design.

The tabletop, available in exquisite marble or wood, features a refined beveled underside that enhances its light and elegant profile. The base structure is crafted with rich wood accents, creating a sophisticated contrast with the soft leather upholstery. The combination of luxurious materials and sculptural form embodies the essence of a premium luxury furniture collection, where timeless design meets exceptional craftsmanship.

Designed to elevate refined interiors, this statement piece pairs beautifully with contemporary living room furniture sets, adding depth, texture, and timeless character. Its harmonious balance of marble, wood, and leather reflects the sophistication of modern luxury Italian furniture, making it an ideal centerpiece for elegant living spaces.
