

Sirio

Design: Giuseppe Carpanelli

Description

Designed for spacious and refined interiors, this modular sectional sofa offers a flexible and sophisticated seating solution within a premium luxury furniture collection. Its modular composition allows for multiple configurations, creating inviting lounge areas that emphasize comfort while maintaining a sleek and contemporary aesthetic.

The structure is crafted with a durable wooden frame and enhanced by multi-density polyurethane padding that ensures superior ergonomic comfort. The base, wrapped in finely stitched leather, adds a distinctive architectural detail, while the elegant metal feet introduce a refined contrast that enhances the overall design. The combination of luxurious upholstery, leather accents, and metal elements reflects the craftsmanship and material richness typical of luxury home furniture.

Perfect for spacious living environments, this sectional configuration integrates seamlessly into sophisticated family room furniture settings or open-plan interiors. Its modular versatility allows it to adapt to different layouts while maintaining a harmonious balance between comfort, design, and contemporary Italian elegance.

Made in Italy.
