

Burlesque

Design: Patrizia Garganti

Description

The Burlesque chandelier evokes a world of drapery, feathers, and precious gems, brought together in a design with a bold and unmistakable personality. Its defining feature lies in the strands of pearls that cascade delicately over the metallic structure, like a soft veil that gently conceals and reveals at once, making the frame itself almost disappear. This interplay of texture and light creates a captivating visual effect, transforming the chandelier into a statement piece. The collection embodies a distinctive vision of femininity, one that is mysterious, intense, and deeply expressive. Made in Italy.

Light bulbs not included.
