

Aliseo

Design: Marco Corti

Description

Aliseo stands out as an original furnishing piece that combines sculptural presence with refined elegance. Inspired by subtle Oriental influences, its silhouette evokes a sense of timeless sophistication while maintaining a contemporary decorative appeal.

The structure, crafted with layered materials and soft padding, is upholstered in fabric, giving the divider a tailored, couture-like appearance. Its balanced proportions and luminous detailing create depth and visual rhythm, allowing it to interact harmoniously with surrounding furnishings.

Conceived as a “dressmaker” furniture element, Aliseo brings elegance and versatility to bedrooms or sophisticated open-plan spaces. Its refined character and architectural presence allow it to define environments while maintaining lightness and flexibility. As a decorative and functional statement, it belongs to a category of luxury interior accessories that elevate interiors with understated prestige and timeless Italian style.

Made in Italy.
