

Amelia

Design: Pier Luigi Frighetto

Description

Charming, intimate, and refined, the Amelia lounge chair introduces a sense of understated luxury to the bedroom or conversation area. Its enveloping silhouette creates a welcoming presence, transforming a functional seat into a decorative focal point. Carefully balanced proportions and soft lines enhance its sophisticated character, positioning Amelia among distinctive luxury home decor accessories that elevate curated interiors.

The fine upholstery is meticulously hand-stitched along the harmonious contours of the backrest, which gently wraps around the generously padded seat. This thoughtful craftsmanship highlights the natural elegance of the design while ensuring exceptional comfort. Every curve is deliberate, contributing to a refined aesthetic that aligns with premium Italian home decor traditions, where artisanal precision and visual harmony are essential.

Compact yet visually impactful, Amelia is conceived as a refined object of desire. Its sculptural presence integrates effortlessly into bedrooms, lounges, or hospitality settings, adding warmth and character without overwhelming the space. Elegant and versatile, it stands out among designer decorative accessories, offering a sophisticated blend of comfort, craftsmanship, and timeless Italian-inspired style.

Made in Italy.

Finishes & Materials

Non-Removable Cover: Fabric, Velvet or Leather with Moka piping.

Padding: Expanded polyurethane.

Structure: Beech wood.

Base: Lacquered wood.

Amelia

Dimensions

31"1/2W x 32"5/8D x 29"1/2H - Cod. BAME10

Seat height: 16"1/2

Seat depth: 19"5/8

