

2026-01 Sofa

By Bellotti Ezio

Description

The Traditional 2026-01 Sofa is a sophisticated three-seater that combines luxurious materials with carefully considered detailing. Upholstered in Tecnabuk, the sofa offers a soft and inviting appearance while maintaining a refined character suitable for elegant interiors. The design is distinguished by its hide-covered base and wings, which introduce a rich contrast in texture and materiality. Decorative metal details further enhance the composition, adding a subtle accent that highlights the sofa's craftsmanship and distinctive design. The combination of Tecnabuk upholstery, hide elements, and metal detailing creates a harmonious balance between comfort, elegance, and contemporary sophistication, making the Traditional 2026-01 Sofa a refined focal point within a living space. Made in Italy.
