

Nuvola

Design: Stefano Conicconi

Description

The Nuvola sofa without frame embodies a vision of bright, essential, and harmonious living, where clean lines, natural materials, and soft neutral tones create an atmosphere of effortless elegance. Defined by its pure silhouette and welcoming proportions, it invites relaxation through generous backrests that gently recline, naturally adapting to the body's movements.

Free from any external frame, this version emphasizes the purity of its lines and the softness of its volumes, creating a more fluid and inviting aesthetic. Delicate contrast piping traces the contours of the sofa like a subtle graphic gesture, adding depth and sophistication while enhancing its contemporary character.

Designed for relaxed and versatile living, the adjustable armrests can be gently opened outward, increasing the sofa's overall width and creating an even more comfortable and welcoming lounging experience. Made in Italy.
