

1191 Bar Cabinet

By Bellotti Ezio

Description

The Traditional 1191 Bar Cabinet is a sophisticated furnishing piece that combines refined materials, elegant craftsmanship, and practical functionality. Designed to enhance luxurious interiors, it offers a harmonious balance between decorative presence and storage versatility. The structure is finished in matt blue lacquer, giving the cabinet a refined and contemporary character while maintaining timeless elegance. Its doors combine glass panels with blue-tinged erable veneer, creating a distinctive contrast between transparency and rich wood texture. This combination enhances the visual lightness of the piece while emphasizing its refined design. The interior back panel is finished with fabric, adding softness, depth, and an extra layer of sophistication to the cabinet's presentation. Made in Italy.
