

Isla

Design: Stefano Spessotto

Description

Designed around the concepts of flexibility and comfort, the Isla sofa features softly rounded modules that come together like an elegant archipelago. Generous seating and plush cushions create a relaxed, inviting atmosphere, while the adjustable backrest offers personalized support and adapts effortlessly to different lifestyles and spaces. Available in two models and upholstered in fabric, Isla combines organic design, exceptional comfort, and contemporary sophistication. Made in Italy.

Technical information

Upholstery: Fabric. In this model the fabrics are used with the grain in the vertical direction (railroaded).

Structure: Solid fir wood. Structural elements in multilayer wood panels in class E1, infills in faesite.

Springing: Seat with pretensioned crossed propylene fiber and latex elastic webbing.

Dimensions

Size A: 157W x 70"7/8D x 31"H

Size B: 172"3/8W x 65"D x 31"H

Seat height: 17"3/8

