

Barcode Sunbed

By Alessandro Dubini

Description

The Modern Barcode Sunbed is a sophisticated blend of modern design, comfort, and natural inspiration. Defined by clean, essential lines, this elegant sunbed features a solid teak wood structure with slats arranged at different depths, creating a unique “barcode” visual effect that adds rhythm, texture, and architectural character to the piece. Designed to elevate outdoor relaxation, the Barcode Sunbed is ideal for poolside lounging, panoramic terraces, luxury spas, or private garden settings. Its minimalist aesthetic allows it to integrate effortlessly into both contemporary and natural environments, bringing warmth and refinement to any space. The adjustable backrest offers four reclining positions, allowing personalized comfort whether sitting up to read or lying back to unwind. Made in Italy.
