Gibson

Design: Cattelan Italia

Description

The Gibson Sofa features a solid wood frame with elastic webbing suspension and multi-density polyurethane foam padding for exceptional durability and comfort. Feather-filled back cushions provide a plush seating experience, while thermoplastic feet offer discreet, stable support.

Available as a 2-seater, 3-seater, and modular sectional system, Gibson allows flexible configurations through interchangeable modules with varying widths and depths. Upholstery is available in fabric or leather as per the manufacturer's collection, with removable fabric covers and optional handcrafted decorative stitching. Designed and manufactured in Italy, Gibson combines architectural aesthetics with premium residential and commercial performance. Made in Italy.
