

Canyons Sideboard

Description

The Canyons sideboard is a modular storage system in ash wood, characterized by a sculptural composition of volumes and angled surfaces inspired by the natural formations of canyons. Its distinctive geometric structure creates a dynamic interplay of depth, lines, and proportions, while the combination of different elements allows for versatile configurations. The sideboard features hinged doors and is designed to provide functional storage while becoming a strong architectural element within contemporary interiors.

Please note: Features internal adjustable shelves behind the doors, allowing versatile and customizable storage configurations.

Made in Italy.
