Description

A silent architecture that inhabits space with the grace of a graphic sign: this new bookcase is revealed through a threadlike and vertical design, conceived to act as a sophisticated visual diaphragm.

More than a simple container, the element becomes a light membrane capable of defining rooms without ever closing them off, allowing the gaze and light to flow freely. The structure finds its maximum expression in the textural details, where the wooden shelves, finely shaped with a soft soap bar profile, eliminate all edges to embrace a fluid and natural aesthetic.

Thanks to its versatile configuration, which allows anchoring from floor to ceiling, the system lends itself perfectly to live as a protagonist in the center of the room, transforming itself into an ethereal partition that organizes the living room with discreet luxury and timeless rigor.

Made in Italy.
