

Murrina

Description

A luminous masterpiece of authentic Venetian craft, this table lamp celebrates one of Murano's most historic glassblowing techniques.

Handcrafted in Venice, Italy, using traditional mouth-blown glass methods, the body is formed by seamlessly fusing hand-pulled glass cane sections into a harmonious, multi-colored mosaic-like pattern.

Its clean, elemental sphere silhouette provides a timeless geometric contrast to the intricate texture of the glass. When lit, the lamp projects a soft, warm diffusion of light that accentuates the vibrant depth and subtle color variations embedded within the glass.

Made in Italy.
