

Birdland Bed

Design: Studio Carlesi Design & Silvia Giannesi

Description

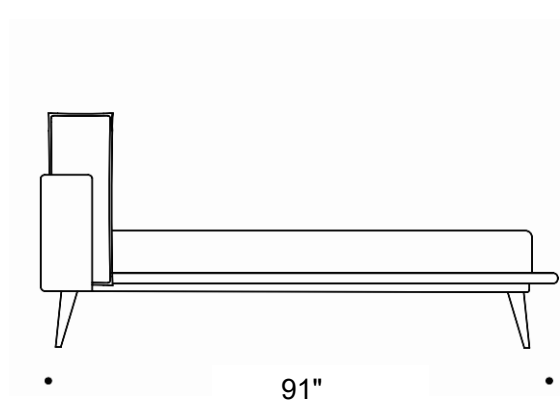

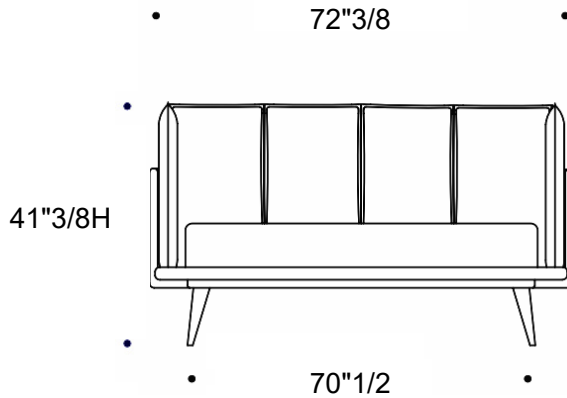

The Birdland bed presents an invitation to rediscover the lightheartedness and warmth of childhood through a reassuring, joyful embrace. Its ethereal structure, gracefully elevated from the ground, creates a weightless, floating presence within the room, transforming the bedroom into a dreamlike sanctuary of lightness, security, and emotional comfort.

The defining characteristic of the bed lies in its headboard, composed of an array of versatile, soft, and removable cushions. This design allows for effortless customization through color and texture, infusing any interior with vitality and renewal. Built with meticulous attention to detail and robust structural support.
