

Fuente Coffee Table

By Aretai for PRIMAR

Description

The Contemporary Fuente Coffee Table is part of a low-table collection designed by Aretai, defined by elliptical forms and essential volumes carved from natural stone. The tabletop is supported by two semicircular blocks, creating a strong yet balanced structure that emphasizes the relationship between geometry and material. With its clean proportions and sculptural construction, Fuente highlights the timeless quality of stone through a contemporary design language. The result is a refined coffee table with a distinctive architectural character. Made in Italy.
