4016 Sofa

By Bellotti Ezio

Description

The Traditional 4016 Sofa by Bellotti Ezio is a generously sized three-seat sofa designed around comfort, softness, and refined traditional detailing. Fully padded and upholstered in meringue-white damask fabric (For the one shown in pictures), the piece features a subtle woven pattern that adds depth and elegance while preserving the light, sophisticated character of the upholstery. The broad seat is divided into two generously cushioned sections, complemented by large upholstered back cushions that create an inviting and comfortable profile. Classic rolled arms reinforce the traditional silhouette, while contrasting piping defines the edges of the seat and back cushions and introduces a distinctive tailored accent. Made in Italy.
