Gualtiero Plus

Description

A harmonious interplay of architectural lines and sculptural forms defines this table. Its wooden top introduces a natural touch to the design, contrasting beautifully with the distinctive central leg. The carefully proportioned structure gives the table a strong yet balanced presence, reflecting the refined approach to materials and form characteristic of Italian luxury furniture.

Beyond its elegant appearance, this table is designed to accommodate the changing needs of everyday life. An integrated extension mechanism allows the tabletop to expand when additional seating space is required, making it equally suited to intimate meals and larger social occasions.

Made in Italy.
